

The Yarra Valley & Surrounds

Kornelia Freeman & Ulo Pukk

The Yarra Valley and surrounding areas — with its misty mornings, vineyards of gold, giant trees and unique attractions — is a place of wonder and inspiration.

This beautifully produced book includes stunning photos and insightful information about all of the points of interest in the Yarra Valley from the famous Healesville Sanctuary, the early pioneer farm Gulf Station, hot air balloon rides and the Singing Gardens of C. J. Dennis at Toolangi, to Bruno's Art & Sculpture Garden in Marysville, the picturesque Alowyn Gardens at Yarra Glen, the beautiful Blue Lotus Water Garden near Warburton, a walk back in time at the Upper Yarra Museum, and the many award-winning wineries. Little-known places of beauty include the giant Californian Redwoods on the Warburton River walk, Marysville's Lady Talbot Drive and Platts Falls.

This is the second book in the Portraits of Victoria series, the first being The Dandenong Ranges.

This book is the second in the series:
Portraits of Victoria

THE AUTHORS

Kornelia Freeman and Ulo Pukk live close to the Yarra Valley. They are both keen photographers and students of natural history and their love of the Yarra Valley shines through on every page.
