

HEAR ME TALKING TO YA

TALES FROM A FAIR DINKUM JAZZMAN

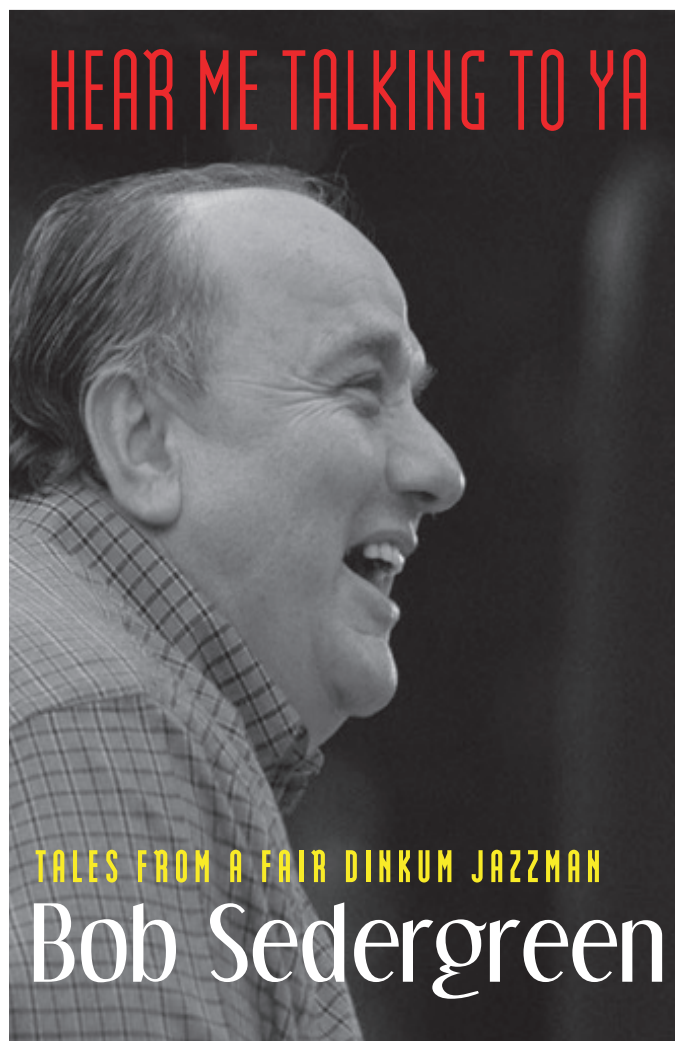

by Bob Sedergreen

Hear Me Talking To Ya takes you on a journey through Australia's Jazz scene, meeting first hand those who shaped it from the 50's until today. We follow Bob's rise to prominence and his encounters with some of the world's greatest musicians - Dizzy Gillespie, Milt Jackson, Phil Woods, Jimmy Witherspoon and many more. Each of the 46 short chapters is a 'behind the scenes' jazz episode.

Many books have been written about Australian Jazz from the outside looking in, but this book is written from the inside and is a revealing and rewarding experience, from the heart and soul of an important figure in the history of Australian Jazz.

Bob Sedergreen's impact and influence in performance, composition and education has secured his place as a national treasure. To play with Bob Sedergreen has been described as the 'ultimate armchair ride.' To hear him is always exciting and satisfying

"Reading Hear Me Talking To Ya is like sitting next to Bob on a bar stool hearing a lifetime of jazz stories..."

Published by Melbourne Books

To be released in May to coincide with the Crown Melbourne International Jazz Festival.

Available in all good bookshops: 280 pages, large format paperback includes photos.

RRP $24.95

ISBN: 978-1877096-97-6

For interview with Bob, review copy or other queries, contact: dten@melbournebooks.com.au